LAS VEGAS – Bobby Rydell will perform his classic oldies at Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel on Friday, September 16, 2016 at 8:00 p.m.

Best known as a 1960s singer and teen idol, Bobby Rydell, sky rocketed to fame after appearing on Dick Clark's American Bandstand in 1959 and went on to sell more than 25 million records with hits such as "Kissin' Time," "Wild One," and "Volare."

Born Robert Ridarelli on April 26, 1942, in South Philadelphia, Rydell showed his musical ability at an early age. He enjoyed emulating comedians and impersonators that he saw on television. Recognizing talent in his young son, Rydell's father encouraged him to perform, and by age 5 Rydell was taking drum lessons. He made his professional drum playing debut at the age of 9.

In the late '50s Rydell was singled out as a solo performer and soon recorded his first single, "Fatty Fatty." And in June 1959, when Rydell was just 17, he recorded "Kissin' Time," which became a hit across the country thanks to the airplay given to the song by Dick Clark on TV's American Bandstand. He eventually produced 19 Top 40 hits, according to Billboard magazine.

Bobby Rydell will perform on Friday, September 16, 2016 at 8:00pm at the Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel located at 5255 Boulder Highway in Las Vegas, Nev. Tickets start at $14.95 and are available at www.ticketmaster.com. For more information visit www.eastsidecannery.com/entertainment.
