LAS VEGAS – American country and pop music singer and musician Mickey Gilley gets set to perform at the Eastside Events Center inside Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel at 5255 Boulder Highway, Las Vegas, Nev. on Saturday, April 24, 2015 at 8:00 p.m.

While the cousin of Jerry Lee Lewis, Carl McVoy, Jim Gilley and Jimmy Swaggart started his career singing purely country and western music in the 1970s, Gilley moved towards a pop-friendly sound in the 1980s. Continuously reinventing himself brought him success on the country charts and the pop charts.

Some of Mickey Gilley's biggest hits are "Room Full of Roses," "Don't the Girls All Get Prettier at Closing Time," and the remake of the soul hit "Stand by Me."

Gilley originally helped create the landmark Texas nightclub in 1971 called Gilley's Club which turned out to be a sensation of the era and the "world's largest honkey-tonk. Later Las Vegas' The New Frontier Hotel would put in a Gilley's Club that was popular for many years before the hotel was closed.

Concert tickets start at $14.95 and can be purchased online at www.ticketmaster.com or by calling the Eastside Cannery box office at (702) 856-5470.
